PRESS RELEASE

BOOK LAUNCH – PAARL & WELLINGTON GATEWAY TO THE SOUTH AFRICAN WINELANDS

It was a warm and clear evening on Tuesday 24 August at Seidelberg Wine Estate where Di Burger and Jeremy Browne held the launch of their beautiful new photographic book - PAARL & WELLINGTON – Gateway to the South African Winelands.

Over 170 people sipped champagne in celebration of this exquisite coffee table book, and marvelled at the view across the valley where the setting sun glowed the colours of red hot glass.

The book is a superb photographic reflection of the splendour of the entire Drakenstein Valley.

The deceptively simple cover belies the beautiful photographs contained within the book - with a large selection of wine estates, accommodation, restaurants and shops in the area. It is also an informative book and contains a well researched section on the history of the area, the people who live here and the emergence of the Afrikaans language.

The book will be available at Exclusive Books and other book stores around South Africa as well as the local tourist offices.

ART Publishers are the distributors and you can contact Barbara Hilaredes on 083 459 9954 for more information

Vesuvio Customers can also view and purchase the book from our farm office.
